PRINCIPALS MESSAGE

Our captains attended the Remembrance Day service in Alma Park on Tuesday. It was a very moving service and our captains conducted themselves admirably.

I am sending home costume requirements for our musical to be held on Presentation Day. The musical is again based on the nativity. If you have costumes from last year that you would be willing to lend please send them in ASAP. The P&C are calling for lollies for Presentation night. These can be left at school. Please no lolly pops or gum.

Don't forget Bingo night at the Bowlo this Saturday. Please bring a plate for supper. Your support for the school is always appreciated. The P&C are also seeking prizes for the golf day to be held on 7th December. Put this date in your calendar and get your team together for a great day.

FROM OUR STUDENT LEADERS

What's New?

This Tuesday was Mrs Beal's birthday! She got a super cool cake made by the talented Mrs Thornton and had a cool time. As well as that it was also Remembrance Day! Year 6 went to Alma Park to celebrate Remembrance Day and laid a wreath on the gate.

Happy newsletter-reading!-

Rose Burke and Sophie Byers.

Our school captains Nick, Rose and Sophie laying our wreath today at the Remembrance Day Service and with Mr Beal after the Service.

Each session goes for 1/2 an hour at a cost of $25 per lesson. The books are supplied.
